To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Marbely Vasquez Jimenez, who was a student in my AP class a couple of years ago. During her time in my classroom, Marbely consistently demonstrated kindness, respect, and a genuine ability to connect with those around her. She is the type of student who contributes positively to the classroom environment simply through her character and the way she treats others.

Marbely socializes easily with her peers and shows a natural warmth that helps build a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere. Even after completing my class, she occasionally stops by my room during lunch to say hello, which speaks to the strong relationships she builds with her teachers and classmates. Her friendly demeanor and thoughtful nature make her someone others enjoy being around and can rely on.

I am confident that Marbely will continue to bring this same positivity, kindness, and strong interpersonal character to any environment she joins. I highly recommend her without reservation.

Sincerely,
Kolbe Gillette

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Marbely Vasquez. I have known her for two years while teaching at Coalinga High School. She took two dual enrollment classes with me last year.

Marbely worked hard to maintain a passing grade. When absent, she would put in extra time to get caught up. Marbely worked well independently and with small groups. I would recommend her for employment. Marbely gets along well with peers and staff. If you have any concerns please feel free to contact me by email.
