

Home

Hi, my name is Marbely Vasquez. I am a high school student at Coalinga High School graduating in 2027. I am interested in becoming a therapist because I enjoy helping people and understanding their problems.

About Me

I am a hardworking and caring person who likes to help others. I often help my family by translating and supporting them in important situations. This has helped me build strong communication and problem-solving skills.

Skills

- Communication
 - Translation (bilingual support)
 - Problem-solving
 - Helping others
 - Listening skills
-

Experience

I have experience helping my family by translating conversations and assisting with important tasks. This has taught me responsibility and how to work with others.

Goals

My goal is to become a therapist so I can help people with their problems and improve their lives.